

How to edit co-brandable posters

Co-brandable posters

We have created some simple co-brandable posters to help you promote courses that you offer to your learners. You will find two formats on the website, PDF and word documents. Covering three course collections and two individual courses.

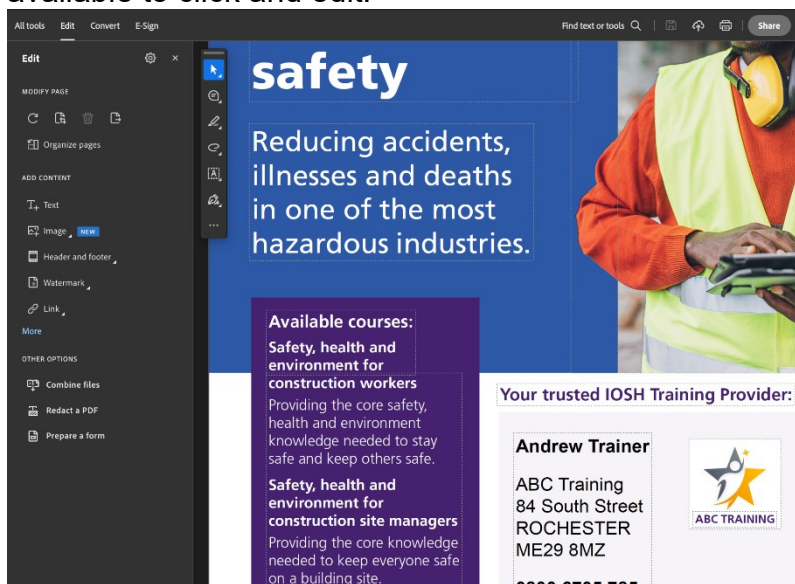

Everyday safety collection
Construction safety collection
Fire safety collection

Managing Safely® Course
Working Safely® Course

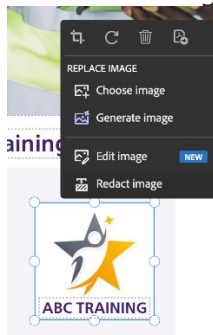

We have pre-populated each poster with dummy info (Andrew Trainer at ABC Training), which can simply be replaced with your own trainer details.

Editing PDFs

If you have Adobe PDF editor can click 'edit' at the top left and all the text becomes available to click and edit.

Your trainer logo can also be edited by simply clicking on this as show below

Editing word documents

If you don't have Adobe PDF editor we have put all this information into word documents, simple click on the editable section and you will be able to edit the text and change the logo.

The poster features a purple header with the title 'Managing Safely®' in white. Below the title, it says 'The leading health and safety course for managers worldwide.' To the right of this text is a photograph of two people walking in a hallway. The bottom left of the poster has a blue box with the heading 'You'll learn how to:' followed by a bulleted list of four points. The bottom right of the poster has a white box with the heading 'Your trusted IOSH Training Provider:' followed by the contact details for Andrew Trainer at ABC Training, including the company address, phone number, email, and website.

Managing Safely®
